Shaw Trial

ESS, 1
10/17/67
NEW ORLEANS—The trial of Clay L. Shaw, wealthy New Orleans businessman charged with conspiring to assassinate President John F. Kennedy, was put off until the middle of February.

Criminal District Court Judge Edward A. Haggerty Jr. decided the date as a compromise between the defense, which wanted a six-month delay, and the office of District Attorney Jim Garrison, which asked for a speedy trial.

Shaw, former managing director of the International Trade Mart, is accused by Garrison of conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to assassinate the President. Shaw has pleaded innocent.
